AUGER laid close up traveling between horses into the turn wresting the lead outside the quarter pole angling to the three path in upper stretch drawing off under a drive. QUICK ENTRY pressed three deep into the turn pursuing from the three path in upper stretch angling in as the winner got away late securing place. HE'S THE SOUPERWON hustled on the outside losing ground to upper stretch finishing evenly in the six path. BLOWING STRONG in a touch close near the half mile pole would drop back playing no factor from there. BOBBY DON gradually cut across on the lead taking the rail into the turn ceding to outside pressure there fading from said rail down the lane. DREW folded up on the turn.
