CITIZEN WEST was away in good order and able to save the two path while battling for the lead drifted out a bit midstretch but was quickly corrected and edged clear through the lane while never seriously threatened. CLEAR HUMOR showed good early speed on the inside was in good position but could not go by the winner while hanging tough for second along the rail. LONG AND STRONG made a three wide move on the turn to get into contention but could not sustain the momentum and had to settle for third. PESO IN MY POCKET was quickest in the first few strides but could not get to the rail dropped back between foes and raced evenly after that. SHANGHAI'S DREAM was three wide on the turn and never mounted a serious challenge through the stretch. OXXON went to the back of the pack shortly after the start and never offered a rally.
