MAJOR DEAL was off mid pack in the three path, slowly advanced up the back side into a stalking position behind the leaders, edged out into the four path nearing the five sixteenth pole, launched a bid and took the lead at the quarter pole, was kept on point and lightly encouraged down the strretch and got the win. MORO LEGEND was well off of the pace and racing in the two path, was allowed to settle in hands, launched a bid after the half mile pole, saved ground through the turn, passed rivals at the quarter pole, chased the eventual winner down through the stretch, repelling an outside challenger, could not get to the the winner but was second best today. POINT BLANK was off the pace early, raced in the three path near the b ack of the field early on, inched out into the four path and launched a bid passing the first set of rivals at the half mile pole, edged out into the four path and passed rivals through the turn, battled in the upper stretch wit and inside foe and down the lane for second place but did not have enough today finishing third. COUNTRY CUT was strong in the bridle and went from mid pack into stalking the early pace setter right away, stalked that foe until the five sixteenth pole, was passed on the outside by another contender and faded. SUPER INTENSE willingly led, was three and four wide early, shifted into the two path, led until the three eighths pole and faded through the turn. LIT A SHUCK stalked for a quarter mile and then faded.

BOMBER COMMAND showed early speed, took the lead, raced in the two path, was uncontested through out. SAN JUAN HILL stalked the pace setter in the three path, gently shuffled back a bit, angled in towards the rail in the upper stretch, was asked and responded by closing up the rail, shifted out into the two path near the wire but could not get past the winner but did repel an outside contender holding onto second place honors. ALL IN GOOD TIME was racing four wide and stalking from in between horses, was angled out at the three eighths pole into the five path, could not get to the eventual winner but battled for second, just not enough today. HOLIDAY RUN was off mid pack, steadied for a moment during the initial jockeying for position out of the gates, angled out into the five path, raced there through out launching a mild bid through the turn and into the lane, raced in between foes while briefly battling with and outside foe, was ble t out finish the rest. SACRAMENT vied for the lead, was three wide, settled into stalking the leader from the three path, stalked until the quarter pole and tired. HEZA ROYAL CAT showed brief speed early, raced four wide, angled out into the six path in the upper stretch and ran even. PIKACHU was never involved. DABOGEYMAN trailed through out. MANDOLORIA was no menace.

ROSES ARE GRAY was off a step slow, was allowed to settle i hands in the two path, started to advance at the half mile pole, angled into the four path at the three eighths pole, circled the field through the turn, went widest of all, was asked and responded well closing ground in the stretch was under heavy left handed crop through out, closing with each stride all the way down to the wire, getting her nose in front at the wire. FUHR MEO showed natural speed early, angled over and took the lead and the rail, set the pace, showed the way to the wire, was caught by an outside closer in the last jump and just missed. TWENTYTWENTYREDO raced three wide, was in the middle of the pack and in between foes, advanced at the half mile pole, launched a bid at the three eighths pole, passed foes entering the stretch, was challenged by the eventual winner, battled with her for a few strides, then chased the rest of the way coming away with third place honors. GUEST IN MY HEART raced four wide, was mid pack on the outside, launched a bid at the three eighths pole, but had no late kick. MAGICAL STARDUST was mid pack and racing on the rail, but was never involved. SUPER ET bumped gates, showed little. LIL HOT TODDY was sharp outo f the gate, settled off of the pace and stalked the early paced setter, faded after the half mile pole.

GRACEOFCAROLINE vied for the lead, raced two wide,, took command and set the pace, was able to go from gate to wire uncontested and scored the win. SIERRA BLANCA raced in the three path, stalked the front runner, raced in between foes, launched a bid at the three eighths pole, advanced position, was asked and responded well and closed with each stride, shifted over to the rail at the eighth pole and still closed well, needed more room but still a game second. NATURAL TOUCH raced from mid pack early was in the two path and improved position down the backside, launched a bid at the three eighths pole, inched into the three path in upper stretch, closed well. MIA MITOLE raced in the four path, stalked the leader, circled on the outside through the turn, chased the eventual winner down the lane and tired. THAROLITE raced in the five path, was out side of a set of three, advanced near the three eighths pole, still five wide, was asked but tired in the lane. CORA'S LEGACY was off a bit slow and was menace. LITTLE ELLIE showed little. MARIAH vied for the lead, raced on the rail, then tired at the quarter pole. FOREIGN TOURIST was never involved.

A G'S CHARLOTTE was four wide and racing in the middle of the pack of competitors, improved position at the half mile pole of the outside, challenged for the lead after the three eighths pole, was engaged in a three way battle with two other rivals to her inside, battled in the middle of these two foes until the sixteenth pole where one of the contenders tired and dropped out of the battle, the other two continued to battle down to the wire, finishing together, a photo was needed to determine a winner. LADY JEOPARDY raced three wide and stalked the pace setter, had one racing on the inside matching strides, was joined at the half by an outside contender,, launched a bid at the the three eighths pole, engaged in a three way battle into the lane, continued to slug it out all the way to the wire. JUST PASSING THRU was three wide and stalking the pace, launched a bid just after the half, went with the front two runners and matched strides from the outside, battled into the stretch, then gave way at the eighth pole. IT'SFIFTYSHADETIME was off of the pace, three wide, improved position at the half mile pole, continued to race in the three path through the turn, drifted four wide in the stretch but to no avail. GASTOWN was off a bit slow and raced on the rail, shifted into the four path at the five sixteenth pole, was four wide and under encouragement in the stretch, finished lflat. MISS PRIORITY vied for the lead, raced on the rail, set the pace, was collared at the three eighths pole and gave way. MEDLEY raced on the rail ,stalked the pace and faded before the quarter pole.
