BAYOU BERTIE sprinted to the front, pulled away and proved much the best. TENSAS LUCY raced in the middle of the pack, made a late bid, proved no match for the winner, but was a clear second. MADELYN'S HIT pressed the pace, forwardly placed throughout, proved no match for the top two, but held on for third. NODAH was fractious in the gates, trailed in the early going, moved up on the inside and was outfinished for third. MOION raced evenly near the back and was never a factor. ASPEN LINK void of early speed, came around the turn wide and was never a threat. ARMY DAY pressed the early pace and made a steady retreat.
