CORMAN hustled from the start and made the early lead, maintained a slight advantage through the early stages, then responded when set down at the top of the stretch, and held safe under steady handling to the wire. LAST U TURN broke well and pressed CORMAN in the two path, kept trying to the finish but was unable to get past the rival. A LA CARTE was a bit slow to get started and unable to hold early position, shifted out to the three or four path for the run down the backstretch, then ran on some late to take the third prize. GREEWHIZ raced three-wide close to the pace, finished with some interest but could not find the winning late kick. BRIGHT CHARGER tracked along the rail in mid-pack, then tipped out to the four-path in the stretch, but was not doing enough to threaten. ALPHA BLUE was a bit slow out into stride, lost the path, then went to the outside of the pack for the run down the backstretch, then lacked a finish in the late stages. P R CALL ME MAYBE saved ground but trailed while under a ride from the outset.

FIVEMINUTSOPASION got away well, then went to the front by about a length under a measured handling, had some trouble changing leads at the top of the stretch, then got straightened out in deep stretch and pulled away in the final yards. GRAND GOLDEN ROAD hopped in the air at the start, then rushed up to press the early pace inside of FIVEMINUTSOPASION, kept on well under steady handling and urging, but could not match the winner late, while holding safe from the rest to save the place. SAVE THE DATE ducked out at the start and bumped into PEARL MAGIC, spotted the field a bit of a head start, then was rushed up the inside to join the main pack on the turn, waited for running room, then was put to strong handling and urging in the stretch drive but came up short in the end. PEARL MAGIC took a bump from SAVE THE DATE at the start, then was under a ride to keep pace with the early leaders, tracked from a few lengths back down the backstretch and through the turn, then failed to change leads and faltered in the stretch. SIP'N' SPEED was outpaced in last through the early running, launched a three-wide middle move on the turn, but could not sustain the bid through the stretch, and finished evenly in the late stages. BULLS N BERRY broke out at the start, putting GRAND GOLDEN ROAD in tight without making contact, was otherwise away well but dropped back, chased the field through the turn while saving ground, but could not generate much of a rally in the stretch and was outfinished. SOLO SURPRISE broke well but struggled to keep pace early, dropped back late on the backstretch run, came under a stiff ride with three furlongs to run, but tired and did not offer a rally. SMALL TOWN HEROINE broke on top but ceded the lead in favor of a three-wide stalking position to the turn, came under a ride approaching the five-sixteenths marker but did not respond and had nothing to offer in the stretch.

BLAZING ZENNA was a bit slow into stride but settled unhurried near the back through the early stages, had only one horse beaten late on the turn, then called through the stretch to win going away in the end. ELIKA was off a step slowly, then slow to get going despite the efforts of the rider, steadily advanced along the rail through the turn under steady handling, then finished up well under steady urging to gain the place while never a threat to the winner. BOTOX KATIE outpaced early despite being under a ride from the start, was last into the turn, swung about eight-wide into the stretch and rallied to gain third. VITAEMI sprinted clear early by about two lengths, held sway through the turn, then gave way readily when challenged in the stretch. OPULENT WAYS tracked in the second flight, then made a bid midway through the turn, came five-wide into the stretch, then flattened out while racing on the wrong lead and was unable to threaten. DANZING CHICK broke well but was not able to go with VITAEMI early, chased that one through the turn, then weakened in upper stretch. BEL ARIA chased five-to-six wide throughout and was outfinished. ROMANTIC JEWEL was off a beat slow, then tracked three-wide in mid-pack, then stopped in mid-stretch and was eased across the finish line and walked off.

TALL GIRL had to be pushed to keep pace early, but got into a good rhythm into the turn, took command passing the three-furlong marker, was confidently ridden to the top of the stretch, then drew away under steady handling and urging. ECHO SEVEN hustled away from the gate to take the early lead, then was joined by PRINCESS HALIME and dueled that rival into the turn, had no answer when TALL GIRL took the lead with three furlongs to run, but was kept to task and finished up well to take the second prize. PRINCESS HALIME rushed up after a bit of a tardy start to duel early with ECHO SEVEN, kept on well after TALL GIRL took over the lead, briefly held the second position in mid-stretch, weakened a bit late, but was able to save the minor award. RIGHT TRAPPE was away well, tracked close up four-wide down the backstretch, loomed three-wide passing the quarter pole, came six-wide into the stretch, and finished willingly but was not quite doing enough to pose a threat. TIZZY JOJO raced in the middle of the pack, then finished evenly. MAGICGIRL was outrun early and last past the half-mile pole, finished with some interest in the stretch. LUCKY PHOENIX was allowed to settle, then raced at the back of the second flight, lost ground going into the turn, tried to re-bid under a ride, but finished one-paced through the stretch and was unable to threaten. LUCKYHOTSTUFF was slow into stride, then rushed up under urging to track behind the leaders to the turn while under a ride, weakened midway through the turn, and had little to offer in the stretch while flopping leads. LIGHT HEARTED chased throughout. IRON PYRITE broke well, raced close to the pace for a quarter mile, then steadily retreated and was not involved in the late stages.

BREEZY MONEY was up on the early pace but got caught five-wide on the first turn, took over the lead passing the six-furlong pole, and went clear down the backstretch, maintained the margin through the far turn, then responded well when set down in the stretch and drew away under steady handling. MIDNIGHT CHANNEL was unable to contest the early pace despite the early efforts of the rider, settled near the back of the pack through the early stages, started a forward move midway down the backstretch run, came under a ride passing the three-furlong pole, took the inside path into the stretch and finished up best of the rest to gain the place, while no threat to the winner. AULD LANGE SYNE hopped in the air at the start and was the distant trailer to the far turn, rallied about seven-wide into the stretch, and finished up well to gain third. ROAD TO STARDOM raced three-to-four wide throughout, was mildly gaining late, but was outkicked for a minor award. FIREWATER JAKE was in a bit tight a few strides from the gate, then was allowed to settle after the break, advanced late in the run down the backstretch to be third going into the far turn, launched a bid to go after BREEZY MONEY on the lead with three furlongs to run, chased that rival into the stretch but was no match, and weakened in the late stages. GUNS N' ROJAS pressed the pace three-wide on the first turn, settled in a tracking position down the backstretch, then struggled to keep up in the late stages. CAMP DAVID tracked in mid-pack, then was unable to produce a rally. BOLDNESS was hustled to the lead into the first turn, then ceded the front end to BREEZY MONEY as the field headed down the backstretch, stalked that rival to the far turn, then did not respond when asked to go on from the three-furlong pole, was later reported to have bled.

BROADWAY SKY was roused from the break to get forward position, settled inside behind the leaders, started to lose ground after passing the half-mile pole and steadily faded. MY TWO AUNT JOANS settled near the back, then was done before the stretch, eased to the wire, and walked off.

NIGHT BIRDIE steadily advanced after a bit of a slow start, pulled even with the dueling leaders at the quarter pole, met no resistance at the top of the stretch, responded when set down, and drew well clear of the rest in the final furlong. HERO QUEEN was allowed to settle, then made a middle move on the inside through the turn and finished up well to gain the place. RACHEL'S KID was outpaced early the moved up four wide on the turn, finished up well under steady handling and intermittent urging to gain third. SOMETHINGTOSAY raced four-wide in the middle of the pack and went evenly. RUBY RIVER dueled inside of DADDY'S LIL CHEF, gave way midway through the turn, and went evenly through the stretch. TRISH hopped in the air at the start, moved up into contention on the turn, bid five-wide into the stretch but flattened out and was unable to threaten. LAST CALL JENNA was close up in the initial stages but dropped back heading into the turn and was uninvolved in the stretch run. DADDY'S LIL CHEF veered out at the start, then dueled with RUBY RIVER early, gained an advantage midway through the turn, then weakened in upper stretch and faded late. AMERICAN TOAST was last early, steadily lost ground on the field down the backstretch, and was eased to the wire, was later reported to have bled and was transported back to the barn in the equine ambulance. After initially being reported as having bled, upon further veterinarian examination it was determined that AMERICAN TOAST sustained an injury and did not bleed. THERE WAS A STEWARDS INQUIRY INTO THE RUNNING. AFTER A BRIEF REVIEW NO ACTION WAS TAKEN.

ELECTIONEERING came away from the gate a bit awkwardly, then raced near the back of the pack through the clubhouse turn, moved up closer in the run down the backstretch, still well behind the pace, launched a bid leaving the quarter pole, then swung seven-wide into the stretch and put in a strong rally to run down FRAME UP on the lead in the final strides. FRAME UP bot bumped by PICO PLAT after the start, tracked in-hand behind the pacesetter to the far turn, bid for the lead leaving the five-sixteenths marker, took a short lead into the stretch, finished up well but was unable to hold off the winner in the final yards. KLIMTSTER settled mid-pack on the inside through the early running, then finished with some late interest to gain third while no threat to the winner. PICO PLAT broke in and made some contact with FRAM UP, then easily made the lead from the start and attempted to temper the pace while clear of the rest, gave way readily when challenged at the five-sixteenths marker, then tired while racing on the wrong lead through the stretch. WILDING LANE tracked behind the pace not far back, remained in good position to the stretch, then lacked a rally. SLIGOTIME veered out at the start, then settled near the back then lacked a finish. UNUSUAL ACTIVITY chased in last early on, then made a tepid late bid but was unable to improve. EASTERN EXTENSION (IRE) went four-wide through the first turn while advancing on the leaders, settled in a tracking position to the far turn, then was unable to quicken with the rest in the late stages and was outfinished. AMERICAN SILVER was racing in mid-pack, suffered a catastrophic injury past the three-quarter pole, and was euthanized.
